

QUADRATURE CAPITAL APPOINT PENSON TO REIMAGINE LONDON HQ

London, August 2019

Global Architecture and Interior Design Studio PENSON have been appointed by leading investment firm Quadrature Capital to help steer its immediate and long-term future by redesigning their workplace experience at its London HQ.

As a result of a high-profile design competition, Quadrature Capital have selected PENSON to reimagine their Leadenhall Building-based offices and translate their culture into physical space.

As renowned design disrupter, PENSON is creating the new 22,000 sq.ft. HQ as a benchmark for financial offices, with an emphasis on socially responsible and biophilic design.

The new HQ will support and communicate QC's socially engaging culture and continued commitment to their recently created Quadrature Capital Foundation.

Amongst other surprises, the scheme will feature a gym, yoga studio, library, games and music room.

Once complete in late Spring 2020, the HQ will be a minimalist, warm, and inviting environment, offering the same welcoming hospitality that Quadrature Capital is already known for.

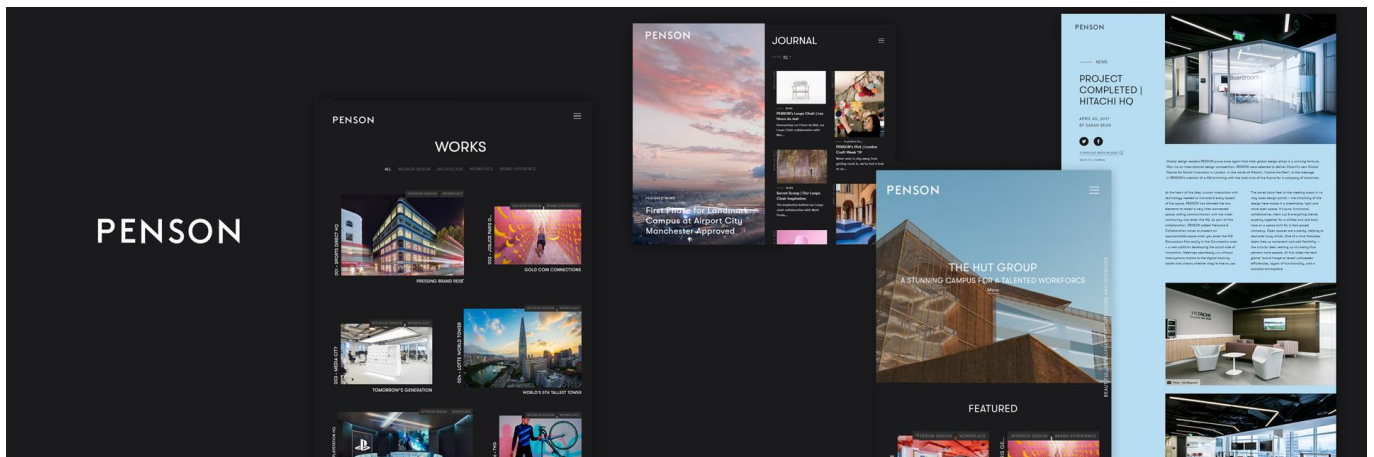

Quadrature Capital, The Leadenhall Building, London.
